THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

OTTO WERNER MUELLER, CONDUCTOR

MARC BECKER, CLARINET

MACMILLAN THEATRE

8 P.M.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1983

OTTO-WERNER MUELLER was born in Bensheim, Germany, and his musical studies began at the Musisches Gymnasium in Frankfurt. At age nineteen, he was appointed Director of the Chamber Music Department for Radio Stuttgart, founding and conducting the renowned Radio Stuttgart Chamber Choir. He emigrated to Canada in 1951 and in Montreal worked for the CBC as conductor of opera, ballet, and symphony. He taught at the Montreal Conservatory and in 1965 conducted the Emmy Award winning CBC production of the Barber of Seville. He has been a guest professor at the Moscow State Conservatory and conducted the Moscow, Leningrad and Riga Symphony Orchestras. He is presently Conductor in Residence at Yale University, where he teaches conducting to a limited number of graduate students, is Musical Director of the Philharmonia Orchestra of Yale and the graduate orchestra of the Yale School of Music. Mr. Mueller continues to make guest appearances with major orchestras in the United States, Canada, and abroad. This is Mr. Mueller's second appearance with the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

Nineteen year old MARC BECKER is in his final year of the Bachelor of Music in Performance Degree program and is a student of Avraham Galper. He has been a member of the National Youth Orchestra, and received the Jean Chalmers Award to assist exceptionally promising students of the Faculty of Music in taking master classes or lessons from a distinguished performing artist not on the staff of the Faculty or Royal Conservatory. This award took him to the Banff School of Fine Arts.
